KID'S KORNER

Thanks to everyone who assisted at the very successful Children's Week Open Day on Saturday 31 October.

*It was heartening to have some new children (and families) coming along.
Heaps of fun was had by all the kids (even those that are kids at heart) with drawing, painting, running games etc.
If you would like to know more just ask Ryan or the Sarah's.*

A WORD FROM THE REV.....

The Blind leading the Blind

What a privilege it was to lead the service for May this week. It was a celebration of a wonderful life of care and compassion, and for this reason we will miss her.

Later I went to look at a blind for Sarah's room. Sarah noticed "Blind Alternatives" and suggested we have a look. Inside we found heavily discounted odd sized patio blinds, the kind we needed for the Men's shed. Trish, served us, and spent a lot of time finding the right sizes for our needs. Then she gave us another sizable discount on the already discounted shed blinds. I asked her why. Trish it turned out used to work at Bunnings and had heard all about the good work the shed did and she wanted to support it. It seems that many people in the world respond to good news.

God Bless
Steve
