A WORD FROM THE REV.....

God is like a mum!

Kym, a friend I went to Bible College with, was speaking at an 'Urban Neighbours of Hope' training session recently and I went to hear him. Kym, who is a bit of a theologian, pointed out that parents are good at losing! I reckon Kym was, particularly when it comes to mums. I mean that in the nicest possible way. Mums just know that if they are playing a game of chess or whatever, against one of their kids, they will deliberately lose sometimes, or even most of the time, in order to encourage their child. Mums don't make themselves great at their children's expense, rather they make their children great at their own expense. Kym suggested that this echoes the cross. God willingly becoming vulnerable so that we can be, all we are created to be.

God is like a mum!

Thanks – Thanks to Jean and John for a great trivia day last week. We all had lots of laughs. I particularly liked the subtle shades and colours in Bob's very understated costume! Well done everybody.

God Bless
Steve
