DISCIPLES FOR JESUS

Our exploration of Moses concludes today:

June 13- Family Service The 10 Commandments

We join with the rest of the congregation to review the story of Moses and identify the commandments that God gave to Moses on Mt Sinai. We will make our own
10 Commandment tablet

From June 20 our theme is JESUS THE TEACHER

We will be sharing the many stories and teachings of Jesus.

June 20 Ask, Seek, Knock

You are asked to bring along one of your favourite story books which we will share and then hear a story that Jesus told

June 27 Lost and Found

How long would you spend searching for something as simple as a 20cent coin?
We will hear another of Jesus' stories.

Steve's Sayings.....

Wasn't last week a very special service, one that we will all remember for a long time. It was fantastic to see three people come forward. Christine, Greg and Noel moved us all as they recommitted their lives to following Jesus. I believe that the spirit was powerfully involved in last week. These commitments will make a huge difference to their experience of life and we look forward to sharing in more of their story over the next few weeks.

Dunny Notice

To make sure we don't get in the "poo" we are doing a "wee" job in the next week or so. You guessed it, work will begin on converting one of our toilets into a disability access toilet. We are very grateful to Kingston Council for funding this job, so to speak. (Its about time we got started as I was beginning to think I was going around the (S) bend with this job. We may not be an affluent church, but at least we won't be an effluent one.) My apologies for the humour, It's Keith's fault.

Thanks
Steve

Today is our Family Service with the children remaining in the chapel for the entire service. We are going to explore what the children have learnt about Moses and to see if adults can answer the following:

Which order did God send the 10 plagues to Pharaoh?

Are the 10 commandments still relevant to us today?

Can you name the 10 commandments and place them in the order God gave them?

Where is God in All of This?

Everyone will be encouraged to share a full minute in SILENT prayer with God - just you and Him. After this minute those who wish to light a candle as a pastoral prayer for someone will be free to do so.
