DISCIPLES FOR JESUS

Let's start to get ready for our special Mother's Day service on May 9.

Last week we learnt about that listening is very important when we shared the story of Eli and young Samuel.

This week we will be painting and decorating our special secret Mother's Day gift.

Next week

Celebrating Mother's Day

There will be no Sunday School in our room this week - we will all be together in the Chapel. There are Mother's day stories and activities for you to do and a fun quiz for the adults titled "Mothers of the Bible."

We will also have light refreshments to share.

Steve's Sayings.....

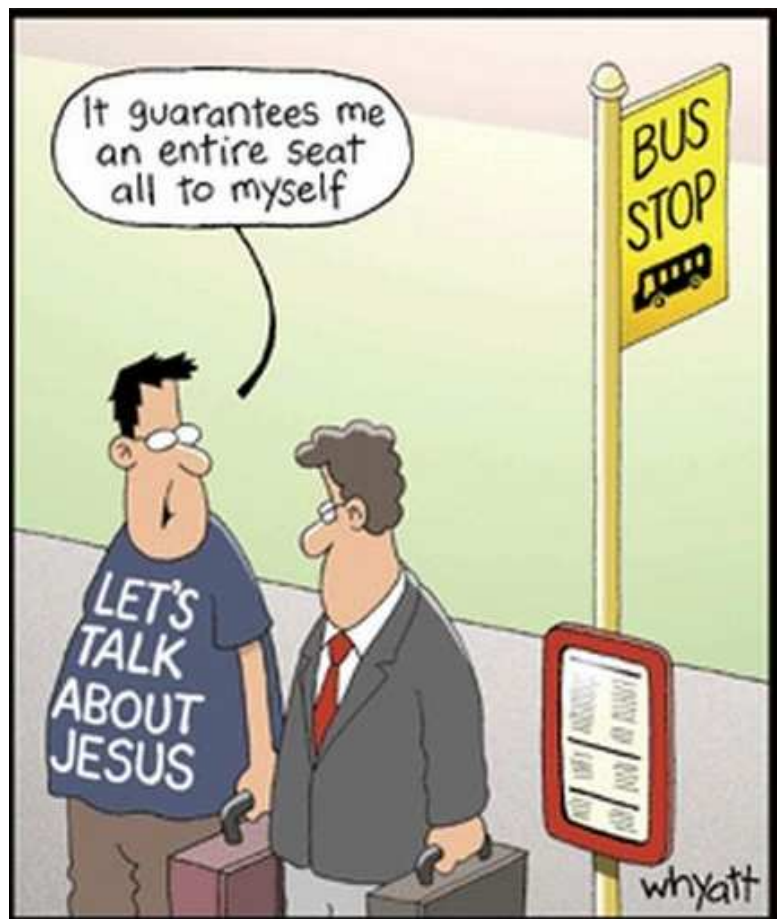

Firstly let me thank you for your care and patience as we adjust to reduced ministry times. Slowly we are getting new systems in place that will free up my time and enable me to get cracking with our journey into "phase two" (sharing our faith sensitively and effectively) and to visit a bit more again, which I am looking forward to.

Visiting is one of the great blessings of being a minister. Particularly with such a fantastic group of people to visit. What a loving group you are.

Meanwhile God still seems to be moving amongst us. We have the opportunity to support a couple of great mission activities through the use of our premises, and in the process become known even more as a church that cares too.

Watch this space!!
