KORNER

A little boy was waiting for his mother to come out of the grocery store. As he waited, he was approached by a man who asked, "Son, can you tell me where the Post Office is?" The little boy replied, "Sure! Just go straight down this street a couple of blocks and turn to your right. ☆ ☆ "The man thanked the boy kindly and said, "I'm the new pastor in town. I'd like for you to come to church on Sunday. I'll 2 show you how to get to Heaven." The little

A WORD FROM THE REV.....

Well attending the footy show grand final edition was certainly an eye opener. How good was my girl? (she was in a mask in Thriller so you couldn't recognise her). I noticed though how many people in the seats really got excited about things. They were passionate and engaged, I wonder if the early church was like that. Passionate excited and engaged like a footy crowd. I can't but help wonder what all churches and particularly our church would look like if we had that "footy passion" for what God is doing with us and in our community. What with being a church that believes in restoring the church as it was in the bible, I wonder what things might be happening, what it would feel like, be like, and what each of us would be doing? A penny for your thoughts.

God Bless Steve

Thank you to David Cox for generously supporting us with our new office chairs in the computer room. They really are good. Go and have a look.

Open Day~ Chelsea CareWorks is having an open day for Seniors week on October 15. All our programs will be free, and we expect quite a few extras.
