KID'S KORNER

'Christmas is giving'

Matt 2:1-12 the Magi present their gifts of gold, incense and myrrh to the baby Jesus.

November 29 and December 6

For these 2 weeks we will make a few gifts to give out on Christmas morning. To keep them 'special' the gifts will remain in the Sunday school room until December 20.

A reminder - for those students who wish to achieve a Sunday School Award you will be required to complete your 'task' on Sunday 20 December. Rewards will be presented at the completion of the church service.

A WORD FROM THE REV.....

A few weeks ago a young person came to see me. They seemed to be embroiled in a lot of conflict. We shared together in a short bible study of how The Apostle Paul dealt with conflict. The young person saw me again last week and shared how helpful Paul's strategy was. They had in fact shared it with some friends who had also found it helpful.

I was also reminded by Tony Roberts on Wednesday of the old Joke

A man went to the mower shop and brought a chainsaw. The sales assistant promised that it was the best saw and would chop down 15 trees a day. A few weeks later the man gave up on it. No matter how hard he worked he could only cut down one tree a day. He took the chainsaw back to the shop and said it didn't work. The shop assistant said it was strange but he would look at the saw. He started it up and the customer said, "What's that noise"

Tony suggested It is important to read the instructions, in our case "the bible" if we want life to work properly.

God Bless

Steve
