A word from Judi....

Following Jesus demands that we sharpen our priorities and focus on what is most essential for our lives.

How often have we ranked earthly success, even in spiritual warfare, above heaven itself?

In the story of Martha and Mary, Martha chose to be immersed in household affairs but Mary lingered at the feet of Jesus to soak up His words. This is where our priorities must also be—at the feet of our Lord, listening to Him, obeying Him.

We need to ensure that Jesus outranks everything else in our lives.

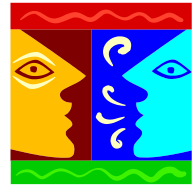

When we have the desire to know, love and obey Jesus, allow God's Word to effect our hearts and the Holy Spirit to counsel us, we are ensuring that Jesus does not stand on the periphery of our lives and we will be truly blessed.

SUNDAY 1ST SEPTEMBER IS FATHER'S DAY.

Be prepared!

The children will be preparing and running the service.

There will be a short DVD about a Super Hero.

There will be a quiz, sharing and Gospel Songs.

Please mark this day in your Calender.

I would encourage you to invite someone to this service—a relative, friend or even a neighbour.

All children who attend can participate even if they don't attend our Sunday School.
