DISCIPLES FOR JESUS

Preparation for the birth of Jesus.

From November 28 to December 12
we will be preparing for a short presentation we will do in the chapel on December 19.

So bring along your creative ideas
as we make angels, sheep, stars, shepherds, baby Jesus, Mary and Joseph.

What part will you play?

Steve's sayings...

During the week I was fortunate to go the U2 concert. I found very moving one part of the concert when the band talked about it being 20 years since the democratic elections in Burma, and for nearly all that 20 years, the democratically elected leader Aung San Suu Kyi has been under house arrest, but now she is released because of international public pressure. However there are over 2,200 people in Burma still in prison only because they believe in democracy. They surrounded the stage with lanterns with Amnesty logos on them. The band followed this with a speech from Nelson Mandela, suggesting that the same people who rose up against Apartheid, rose up against wrongful imprisonment in Burma etc.. That group of people is us, whenever we stand together as One. The band followed this up with my favourite song "One" This section of the show was finished off with a rendition of "Amazing grace" It was a great night.

Who will God call us to stand with as One this coming year, and how will we be blessed because we have stood as one.

Steve
