

LIVING JESUS' EXAMPLE

27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and

From The Desk of Pastor Judi

Today's reading from Jeremiah may cause some to shrink back from God's judgement on the people. But the prophet recorded a promise. After centuries of rebellion it would have been easier for God to have ended His dealings with the Israelites and to have chosen another people. But He chose instead to restore the destroyed, rebuild the ruins and raise up His fallen nation.

God chose to heal the broken, to take the scattered pieces and put them back together, one by one, piece by broken piece.

Why is that? Why does God continue to do that when we all 'fall short of the glory of God?' Because when you love something and that something breaks, you don't abandon it, you put it back together, piece by piece.

The story of Israel is a sign to all people, a picture of God's redemption for all who will receive it. And that redemption is about restoring the broken pieces of our lives, of our mistakes and puts them back together.

And as God has done for us, we must do the same to those who are fallen and to that which is broken.

Is there something broken that you have abandoned or given up on?

Pray for its redemption and, if you can, put it back together in God's love.
