

"A CHURCH FOR ALL"

CHELSEA NEWSLETTER

2 February 2014

Do you have trouble dealing with change?

Change is all around us, it is inevitable. It is hard for the person being affected by the change but it is also just as hard for the person trying to effect change. We all like to think that life just goes on with rare hiccups along the way. But if we live that way, when a change occurs, whatever that may be—illness, job, financial, relationship—not being aware of how we deal with change or strategies to help us through, things get difficult.

Within the church there is a “cord of three strands not easily broken” (Ecclesiastes 4:12)

The three strands that get woven together in the lives of many believers, that makes us resistant to change are:

One's relationship with Christ; the way in which we worship and the facility in which we worship.

1. Sometimes a person's relationship with Christ is subconsciously tied to something outside of trusting in Christ's finished work—DO YOU ACCEPT THAT YOU ARE SAVED BY FAITH ALONE?
2. Sometimes we struggle with accepting that the traditional, needs to be meshed with the modern way of worship—DO YOU TIE THE MANNER IN WHICH YOU WORSHIP WITH YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH CHRIST?
3. Does it matter what colour the carpet is or the walls? DO YOUR SURROUNDS IMPACT ON YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH CHRIST?
