JESUS WAS A REFUGEE

Jesus was a refugee and was hated by the world. He brought light, truth, hope, peace, forgiveness and eternal life to people and showed us the way to God,.

He offered satisfying water and bread to the thirsty and hungry. He healed the sick, welcomed sinners and raised the dead. He taught magnificently and gave the world's most profound spiritual, moral and ethical guidance. He lived selflessly and sacrificially.

Jesus had no place to rest His head, had to sleep out in the open many times, was forced out of a number of villages and was rejected by His own people.

Today's refugees arrive in Australia after they have escaped war, poverty, starvation, torture—looking for a chance to make a contribution, be accepted and respected as Children of God.

Do we accept them into our world or do we judge before we have even met them?

Yes, their beliefs and customs may be different to ours but didn't Jesus show acceptance with the Samaritan woman and others who were 'different?'

Let's BE THE JESUS THAT OTHERS SEE
