

The Three Sieves

Isobel came running to her 'Grandma, Gran, Gran I have something I'm dying to tell you.'

'Wait a minute—have you shaken it through the 3 sieves?'

The first sieve is truth 'Is what you are going to tell me the truth?'

'Well, Isobel said I heard it from someone else, so I am not sure.'

The second sieve is goodness. 'Is what you are going to tell me something good?'

'Well no, it is really the opposite.' replied Isobel.

'Okay, you are not sure if it is true and you are saying it is not good. The third sieve asks—is it necessary?'

Isobel was very quiet and sank into thoughtful silence.

Gran said: 'Since what you are going to tell me is neither true, nor good or necessary I suggest you bury it deep in the ground of forgetfulness, where it won't cause any heartache to anyone ever again.'
