Finding a Place to Belong and Become

A Human Services organisation developed a government-run inpatient unit to assist individuals struggling with life issues. They tried to replicate a family setting with a community feel. While the persons did not verbalize it, they were all seeking an answer to the question:

“where can I find a place to belong and become?”

This was a great idea – they wanted a place where struggling people felt accepted, loved, can grow, overcome their struggles and mature.

This is exactly what God calls the church to be – a place to belong and become.

God’s plan is that everyone in the body of Christ speaks and lives gospel truth in love so that the whole body grows up in Christ.

This is what God has called CHELSEA to be – a church that is saturated with people who live and speak gospel truth to one another before church, at church, after church, away from church, in the car, at the restaurant, at work, in the neighbourhood, at the sporting event and in the midst of conflicts.

We are all Disciples of Christ, called to reach out to others.

Will you take on this commitment?
