You can always ask Jesus for help in prayer

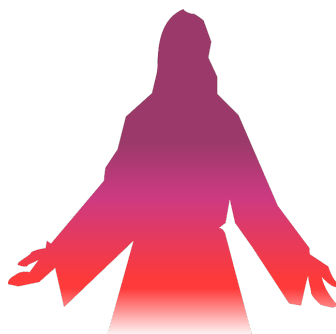

“Keep on asking and you will receive what you ask for.” Matthew 7:7

We can all share in a dilemma of wanting to ask Jesus for something in prayer, such as, ask Jesus for an answer concerning our burdens. This can be seen as a normal reaction to have because you may be unsure what the answer to a burden will be. This is where faith comes into being and where you need to be confident to take your burdens to Jesus in prayer.

For example, when I was a child and was experiencing a burden my Mum and Dad both used to say, “I can tell you have something on mind. Be encouraged and ask us for help.” This was good advice because as we know parents know what is right for their children. This is the same in asking Jesus for help in prayer. He is a great encourager and will answer your prayer.

This part of verse seven is an encouragement for all of us to persist in prayer to the Lord with continual asking about the different aspects of our life.

Janet.
